An Involuntary Examination of a student or person must meet the following criteria per Florida Statute 394.463:

1. Reason to believe a person has a mental illness and because of mental illness, a person has refused or is unable to determine if an examination is necessary, and either:
2. Without care or treatment, is likely to suffer from neglect or refuse care to self, and such neglect or refusal poses a real and present threat of substantial harm to one's well-being and it is not apparent that such harm may be avoided through the help of willing family members, friends or the provision of other services: or
3. There is a substantial likelihood that without treatment the person will cause soon serious bodily harm to self or others, as evidenced by recent behavior.

Greentree Prep Charter school will determine if a student must have an involuntary examination based on the Florida Statute 394.463. Greentree will further ensure:

1. Our principal or designee shall make reasonable attempt to notify the parents of a student before the student is removed from the school or school sponsored activity to be taken to a receiving facility for an involuntary examination.
2. Greentree Prep Parents have the right to timely notification of threats, unlawful acts and significant emergencies
3. Greentree Prep Parents have a right to access school safety and discipline incidents.

In addition, Greentree Prep will follow any policies and procedures mandated by Broward County Public Schools and the state to ensure the safety and rights are protected by all stakeholders.
